Kathryn Domin's practice focuses on litigation involving a wide variety of industries and topics, including real estate transactions, landlord tenant disputes, misrepresentation and fraud, business interference claims, defamation, soft intellectual property disputes, unfair business practices, and class action defense (to name a few). Kathryn represents local individuals and businesses in Orange County, as well as companies operating nationwide.

Since joining Rutan, Kathryn has had the unique opportunity to take several cases to trial, all of which ended with judgment/verdicts in her clients' favor. While she is very experienced in aggressively litigating cases when that approach is appropriate, in each case and with every client she actively seeks the balance between the demands (financial and otherwise) of litigation and the best business result for her clients. She strives to be a counselor - one her clients can trust to always be looking out for their best interests.

While in law school, she donated her time to the Pepperdine Legal Aid Clinic at the Union Rescue Mission on Skid Row in Downtown Los Angeles. Prior to law school, she graduated from UCLA with a B.A. in Political Science and a minor in English.
