Orange County (714) 641-3451 Imontague@rutan.com

Lisa Montague is a banking and finance attorney specializing in debt and equity funding. She brings extensive experience to the firm, having represented both public and private clients in strategizing, organizing, documenting, and closing complex financial transactions across the United States and internationally. Her practice involves working with borrowers, lenders, and investors.

Before joining Rutan & Tucker, Lisa served as an associate at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP, where she represented sophisticated banking institutions in financing high-value projects within the infrastructure and energy sectors. Her expertise encompasses asset-based credit facilities, cash flow loans, recurring revenue facilities, venture debt loans (including working capital lines and term loans), combined debt and equity financings, bridge loans, and intricate intercreditor and subordination arrangements.
