Matt Murray's practice focuses on construction transactions, claims management, and litigation. As member of Rutan & Tucker's Chambers Band 2 construction law practice group, he routinely represents owner-developers, prime contractors, and subcontractors on both public infrastructure and private projects, including commercial and affordable housing, mixed-use, and industrial developments. In addition to his litigation and claims management experience, he has broad experience drafting and negotiating prime contracts, subcontracts, consultant and design services agreements.
