

WATER

---

Rutan's top tier attorneys with decades of experience in water law help our clients succeed in all aspects of the water industry.

Rutan's Water industry team of elite litigation, general counsel, and special counsel attorneys are uniquely positioned to assist our clients with all complex matters related to groundwater, surface water, stormwater, wastewater, and recycled water. For decades, we have successfully supported our clients through challenging water rights acquisitions, intricate business decisions, complex litigation and negotiations, and much more. Our top tier attorneys are always up to date on the latest regulations and have a deep understand the issues our water clients face. With Rutan's long history of success in the water industry, we are perfectly suited to provide creative solutions that enable our clients to accomplish their goals.