

EDUCATION

Rutan & Tuckers Education practice serves the firm's many school district, community college, college and university clients by providing legal counsel in various litigation and transactional settings. Our attorneys specialize in special education, personnel matters, labor negotiations and many other areas of education law and we provide sophisticated, efficient and cost-effective legal advice in a tremendously varied and diverse practice area.