

RESIDENTIAL

Rutan & Tucker represents national and local residential homebuilders in all aspects of development including acquisition and disposition of improved and unimproved land and preparation and negotiation of easement agreements, CC&Rs, and financing documents. Rutan & Tucker also has extensive experience with environmental, land use and entitlements, insurance coverage, tax and construction law issues for residential projects including master-planned communities, condominium projects and mixed-use developments.