

SECURITIES

Rutan understands that its clients face ever greater challenges and opportunities as the global economy evolves. Our goal is to offer you the best possible representation to help you achieve the best outcomes for your business. We represent virtually all participants in the investment world, including investors, financial planners, estate planners, insurance and annuity brokers, stock brokers, investment advisors, and chartered and financial analysts. From prosecuting and defending claims for fraud, negligence, churning, unauthorized trading, solicitation to the sale of unsuitable products, breach of fiduciary duty and conflict of interest - we do it all. We offer you high-quality, insightful and timely advice that responds directly to your needs.